

Unit 5 Review

U.S. History

Chapters:

18 - America Claims an Empire

19 - The First World War

20 - Politics of the Roaring Twenties

21 - The Roaring Life of the 1920s

Lectures:

"What's Left to Take?"

"Can We End All Wars?"

"Does the World Want What America is Selling?"

"Does America Want What America is Selling?"

18th and 19th Amendments

Crash Course:

-Imperialism

-WWI

-Women's Suffrage

-The Roaring Twenties

Key Concepts:

- The significance of the Great White Fleet
- Sanford Dole and the overthrow of Hawaii
- Yellow Journalism - what it was, and how it functioned in relations to the late 1890s and early 1900s
- The Explosion of the U.S.S. Maine and the relevance to US Foreign Policy
- Spanish-American War. Why was the war a real opportunity to the United States who was late in the game for imperialism?
- The Rough Riders and San Juan Hill
- The Spoils of War: Puerto Rico, Guam, Cuba, Philippines... how did we deal with each?
- The Platt Amendment and it's relation to Cuba
- What were the goals of American Imperialism?
- Emilio Aguinaldo and his fight for Philippine independence
- Open Door Notes and the Boxer Rebellion
- The creation of the Panama Canal. What paved the way for the canal to be built?
- The Roosevelt Corollary and Dollar Diplomacy
- U.S. intervention in Mexico
- WWI Combatants: The Triple Entente (Allies) vs. Central Powers
- Why the assassination of F. Ferdinand led to a global conflict
- Why trench warfare reduced the war to crawl and ultimately mostly a stalemate
- New weapons and technology introduced during WWI and their impact in warfare in general
- The American attempt to stay out of the war
- Impact of the ship Lusitania
- The Zimmerman note and its impact on Neutrality

- The economic impact of WWI on the United States
- German U-Boats and the Convoy System
- Gen. Pershing and the AEF - why did the Americans make the same fatal mistakes as allies did early in the war?
- What was the primary contribution of the United States to WWI
- How did WWI expand the power of the federal government in the US?
- The War Industries Board and some of the things they did on the homefront
- George Creel and the CPI - how did they change perspectives on the homefront?
- Immigrant fear and the Espionage and Sedition Acts
- The Great Migration
- Wilson's 14 points and the Treaty of Versailles - how were Wilson's ideas treated?
- Aftermath of WWI - nativism and isolationism
- The 1st Red Scare and the Palmer Raids
- The quote system from the Emergency Quota Act of 1921 - what was the intent?
- Harding the absolute embarrassment and the Teapot Dome Scandal
- The rise of the automobile and its thunderous impact on society both directly and indirectly
- The National Consumers League - how did this consumer power affect the markets?
- 1920s Advertising - how did it fundamentally differ from earlier advertising?
- Installment plans and buying on credit - how did these extend buying power?
- The 18th and 19th Amendments
- The great experiment of prohibition - what were the effects of the 13 year experience?
- The rise of Christian fundamentalism
- the Scopes trial - what was the argument here?
- How did the "Boom" cycle help consumer expenditures during the 20s?
- The Flapper and the emancipated 1920s woman
- How did woman experience new freedom and opportunities during the 1920s
- Mass media and the era of the celebrity
- Why did some (many?) Americans actually do POORLY economically during the 1920s? Did the Government respond?
- The Harlem Renaissance and what it meant for black culture
- Stars of the HR: Hughes, Hurston, McKay, Douglas, Robeson, Armstrong, Ellington, Smith, Baker
- Garvey and the Back to Africa Movement
- How Hollywood exported culture to the world. What were big themes that were shown?
- Why was the US in a great position to be a cultural exporter during the 1920s?
- How was vertical integration utilized in the studio system?
- In what ways did film change during the 1920s?
- Why was jazz the breakthrough music for Blacks during the 1920s?